Live on Mars (David Bowie Parody)

It's a god awful state of affairs
How we've run out of polar bears

The ice caps are melting fast
And our food isn't gonna last

Oil and gas is nowhere to be seen
And we're chopping down the very last tree

The old expression's no longer true
There isn't plenty more fish in the sea

But that film was a saddening bore
You know the one made by Al Gore?

The real inconvenient truth is that there isn't enough –

Food for all the people in the world now, unless you like human flesh
Which is hard to find fresh

Take a look at the lines of people trying to get on spaceships
Lining up from dawn til dusk
Thank you Elon Musk - we can live on Mars.
